AT THE GATE

What fits in your race-day bag

The 2027 ticket shop links the March 2026 admission criteria. Final event instructions may change.

Four things security may check

Grandstand bag

DIN A3

297 × 420 mm. Use a compact bag that fits in your seat area.

Flask

Up to 1.5 L

Plastic bottles and standard cans also allowed.

Camera

Private use

The rules give no numerical lens limit.

Power bank

Phone-size

A larger power bank is prohibited.

Bag size

Grandstands: no luggage larger than DIN A3 that cannot fit within your ticketed seat area. Large bags, suitcases and sports bags are prohibited. DIN A3 is 297 × 420 mm. Choose a compact bag that fits under your seat.

Bottles and snacks

Plastic bottles, standard beverage cans, flasks up to 1.5 litres and personal cold snacks are permitted. No outside alcohol, glass or cool boxes.

Camera

Cameras are permitted for private, non-commercial use. Tripods and selfie sticks are prohibited in grandstands.

Power bank

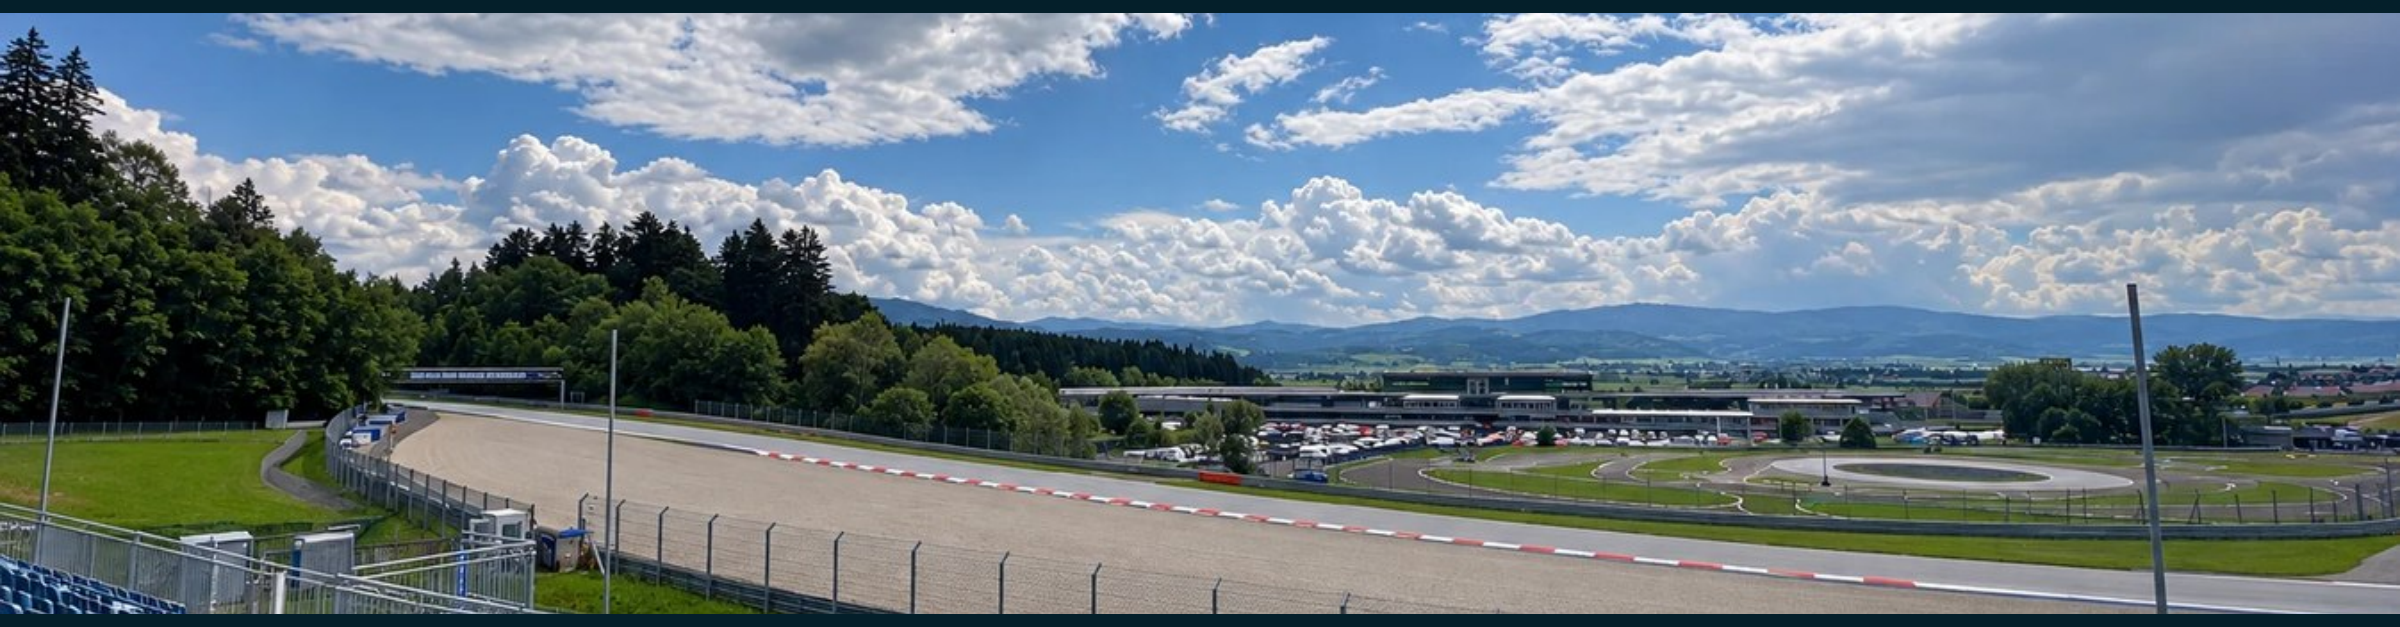

Power banks must be no larger than a mobile phone. Computers, tablets and e-readers are prohibited.

Chair and umbrella

Folding chairs and compact umbrellas are permitted in standing areas. No parasols in the seating area or large garden umbrellas.

Long lenses and supports

Cameras for private, non-commercial use; no lens-length limit is specified. Monopod rules are to be confirmed. Ask the organiser about a long lens or unusual equipment before taking it to the gate.

Flags and binoculars

Up to 1.6 m and less than 2 cm diameter; access to grandstands may still be refused. Binoculars and ordinary pocket lighters are permitted.

Medicine and family gear

Personal medicines, walking aids and white canes are permitted. Strollers are prohibited. The organiser recommends against bringing children under six. Ask ahead about any essential medical or infant equipment that needs a gate exception.

Luggage storage

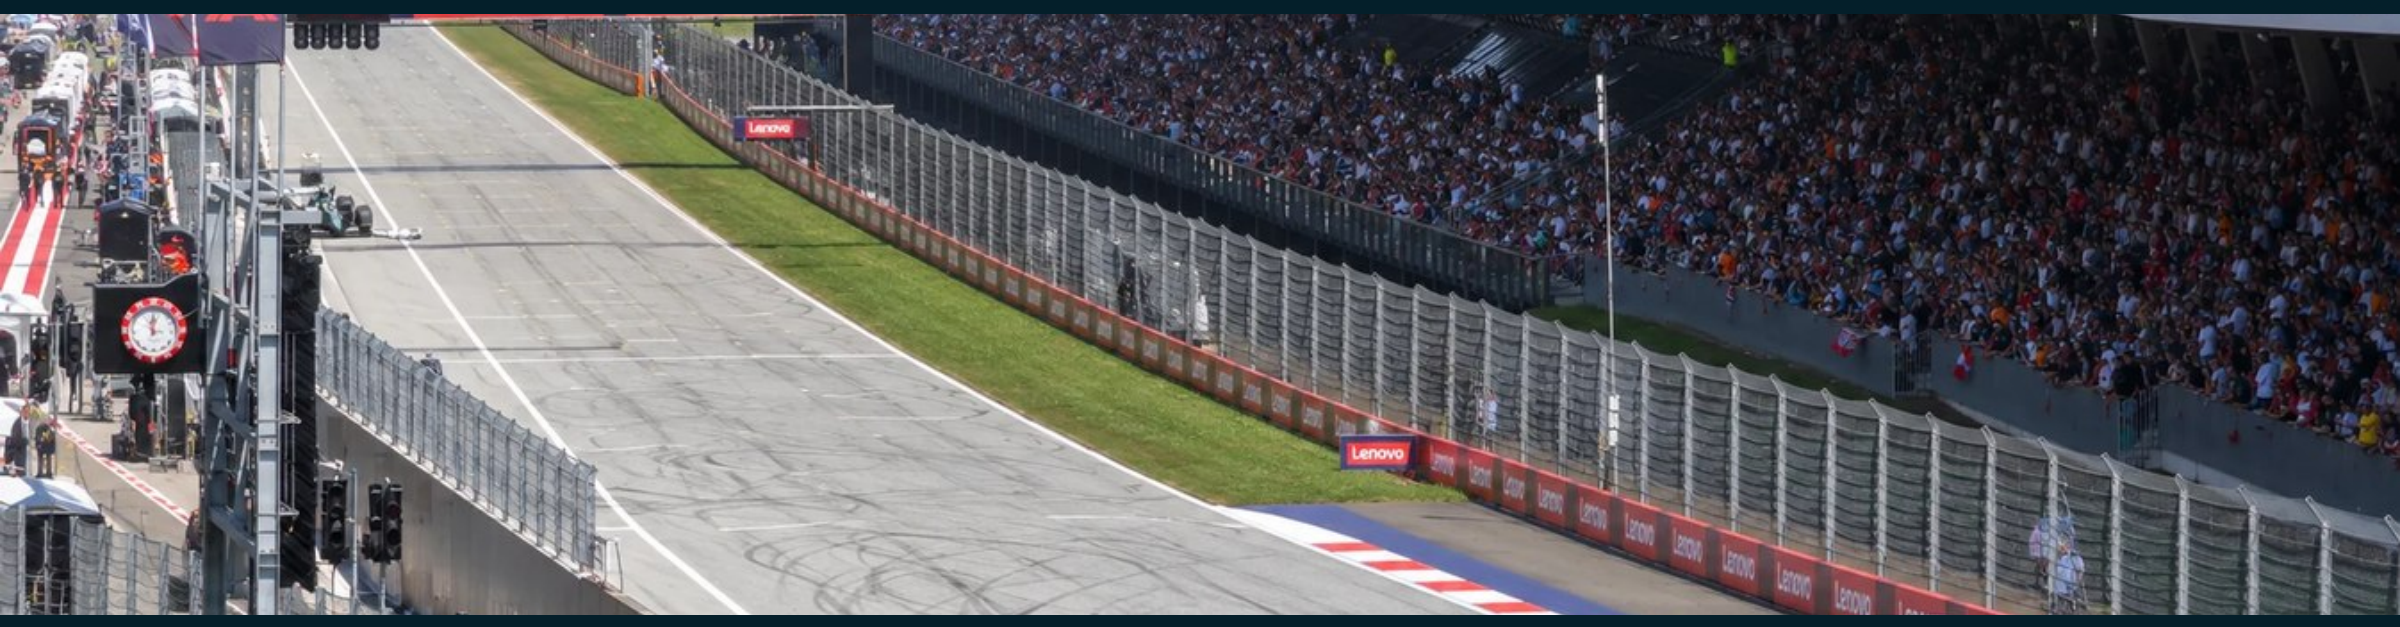

Arrange storage at your stay before leaving. The organiser has not published a general spectator luggage service for 2027.

INSIDE THE CIRCUIT

Tickets, security and spectator rules

The main grandstand beside the home straight

Before leaving your stay

Organiser grandstand and GA digital tickets arrive no later than ten days before the race. Save the issued tickets and circuit map offline. Use the date, zone and gate on your ticket. Use the admission dates and zones printed on your ticket. 2027 re-entry procedures and gate opening times are to be confirmed. Ask at the gate before leaving if you plan to return.

Children’s admission

Born after 11 July 2012, accompanied by a paying adult; order a child ticket. Up to two free GA child tickets per adult, subject to availability.

Security and conduct

Staff may inspect bags, visitors and vehicles. Refusing a check, intoxication or disruptive behaviour can lead to refusal or removal. CCTV operates at the venue. Follow stewards, keep stairs and emergency access clear and use marked smoking areas. Stay behind barriers unless stewards open an authorised route.

Common reasons to repack

Drinks and food

Glass, alcohol and cool boxes

Family gear

Strollers and wagons

Camera kit

Drones and broadcast equipment

Dangerous items and substances

Weapons, knives, darts, blades, loose metal bars or chains, stones and other projectiles, lasers, fireworks, flares, smoke devices, irritant sprays, dangerous gases and corrosive or flammable substances are prohibited. The rules also prohibit drugs and stimulants.

Bulky equipment and wheels

Leave ladders, scaffolding, large umbrellas, poles outside the flag allowance, bikes, skateboards, scooters, Segways, carts, strollers, tents and shelters at your stay. Drones and model aircraft are banned across the venue.

Cooking and drinks

Cookers, barbecues, other food-preparation equipment, glass or breakable containers, cool boxes and outside alcohol are prohibited.

Animals and material for distribution

Animals are generally prohibited. Contact the circuit about guide-dog access. The venue prohibits discriminatory, extremist or political propaganda and requires written permission for promotional material or distribution.

Restricted areas and overnight stays

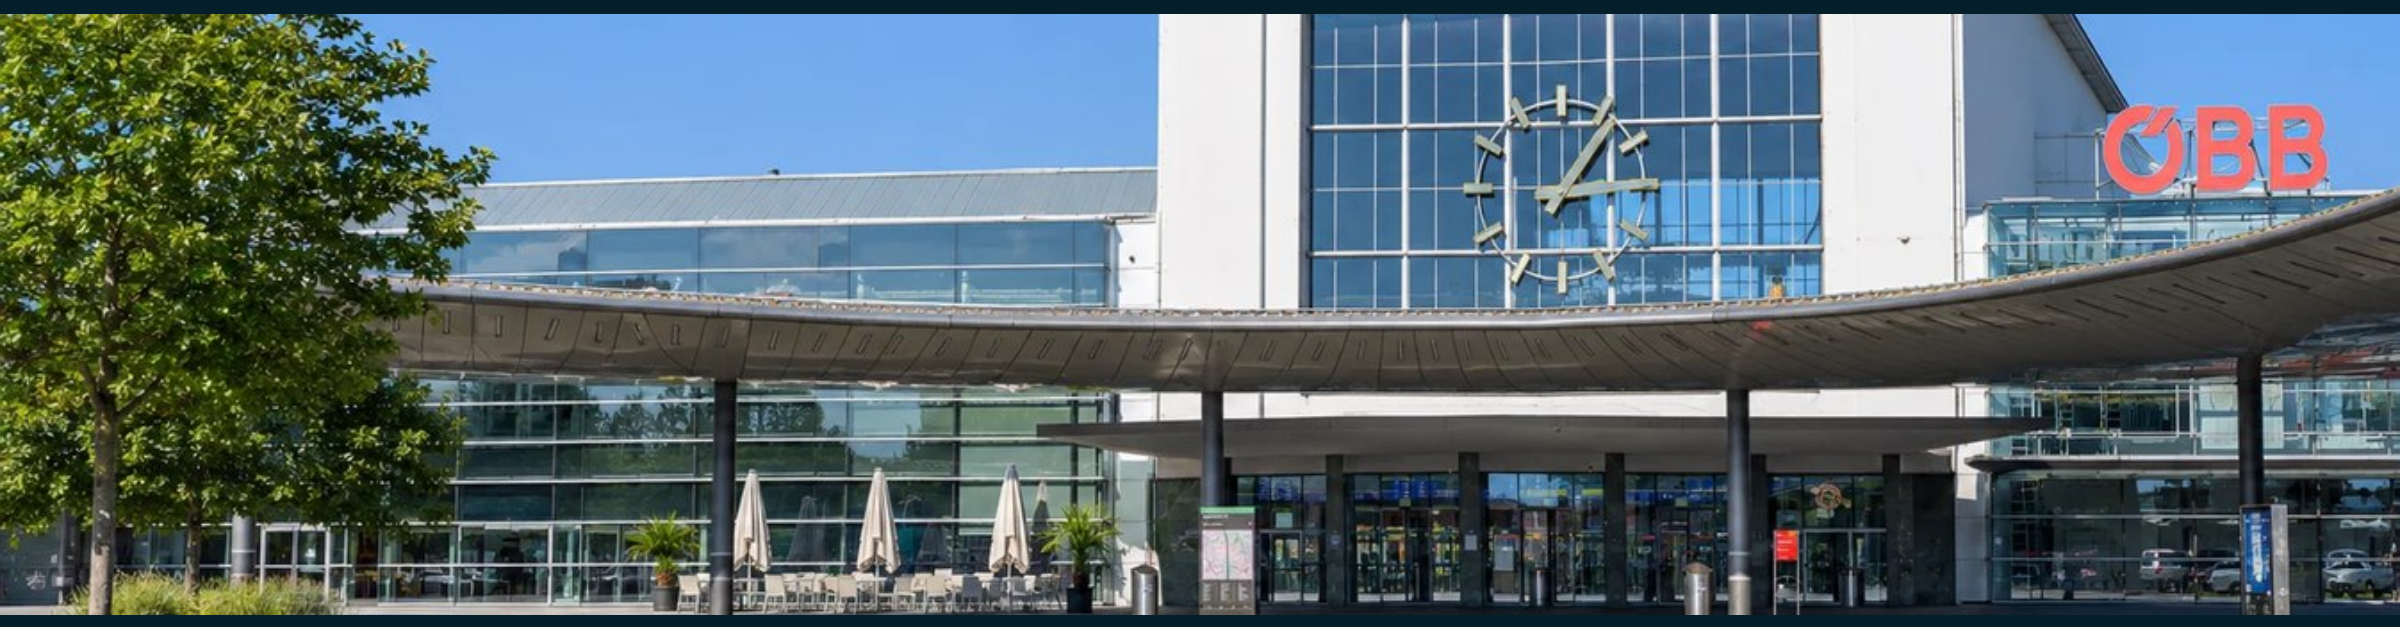

Circuit admission covers your ticketed areas during official opening hours. Track, pit, paddock and service areas require separate permission. Camping and overnight stays belong at a booked campsite.

YOUR OUTWARD TRIP

Airports, shuttles and road access

The Europaplatz entrance to Graz Hauptbahnhof

Flying in

Graz Airport connects to the city by train or bus, with an onward rail journey towards Knittelfeld. Vienna Airport has a mainline station under the terminal complex. Compare the whole journey to your booked stay, including the final transfer with your bags.

Free local shuttle or booked coach

Take the Knittelfeld Bahnhof shuttle and follow the signed walk to your gate. The Judenburg route uses Postgasse, a separate stop from the railway station. Both 2027 shuttle timetables are pending. A paid long-distance coach has its own reservation and pickup.

YOUR OUTWARD TRIP / CONTINUED

Airports, shuttles and road access

Driving and parking

Follow race-day signs for your ticket and parking area, even if navigation suggests a different road. Save your lot and row. Allow for controlled exits after the race. Check if your rental already has an Austrian motorway vignette and whether your route has an extra section toll.

Step-free access

Dedicated Start–Finish wheelchair tickets have their own parking-permit approach, ramp and accessible toilets. Ask the ticket office on +43 1 796 94 90 about your approach and companion ticket. Arrange rail assistance and an accessible connecting vehicle separately.

Knittelfeld

Take the shuttle to Bahnhofplatz 8, then walk or use a prearranged ride. The ordinary bus timetable has no Sunday evening departure from the Red Bull Ring stop.

Zeltweg via Knittelfeld

Provisional ÖBB trains from Knittelfeld on 11 July: S8 at 23:32, arriving 23:37. The last listed departure is IR 884 at 23:59, arriving 00:04 on Monday.

SUNDAY 11 JULY 2027 / CONTINUED

The last leg home

Judenburg

If you can reach Knittelfeld Bahnhof, the provisional S8 at 23:32 arrives at 23:44. The last listed departure is IR 884 at 23:59, arriving 00:12 on Monday. These trains serve Judenburg railway station, separate from Postgasse.

If the connection falls through

The permitted step-free circuit pickup for 11 July 2027 is to be confirmed. If you need one, agree the vehicle, meeting point and a fallback with the circuit and driver. Save the driver’s contact and the pickup instructions. For camping, use your operator’s signed pedestrian route.

Breakfast to go · Martin Auer

Use the rail-side bakery at Europaplatz 5, marked Hauptbahnhof Zug. Bread rolls, pastries and coffee are easy to take to the platform. For Sunday departures, plan on service from 06:00.

Sunday from 07:00 · Café Lipizzaner

The first-floor café at Herrengasse 23 in Knittelfeld serves a breakfast buffet from 07:00 to 11:00. ≈ €18.90 per person on weekdays; ≈ €22.90 at weekends and on public holidays. Call +43 3512 44266 about a table.

Friday and Saturday before 07:00 · Madenberger

Pick up bread rolls and pastries from 05:00 at Herrengasse 5 in Knittelfeld or Bahnhofstraße 38 in Zeltweg. Both branches close on Sunday, so buy Saturday for an early Sunday start.

FOOD, DRINK AND PAYMENTS / CONTINUED

Breakfast, circuit snacks and a late meal

After a late train · Hauptbahnhof

Walk in for takeaway at McDonald’s inside the station. Regular Sunday restaurant hours run to midnight. Call the branch if you need to know how late you can order hot food.

After the Sunday shuttle · Sultans, Zeltweg

Kebap, pide and pizza at Hauptstraße 108. Regular Sunday hours are 10:00–22:00, with delivery until 21:30. If you return via Knittelfeld, allow for the onward train or ride before calling +43 3577 24271 for takeaway.

If you arrive after dinner

The provisional 23:15 Graz arrival is after the listed city dinner kitchens. The station McDonald’s is the fallback. Its Grand Prix Sunday hot-food cutoff is to be confirmed. Keep a meal at your stay if you expect a late Murtal return. Buy market supplies by Saturday.
