THE DAY 10:00 - 12:00

Palace & Churchill Exhibition

01

Start with the Great Hall and Long Library, then explore Churchill's connection to Blenheim through the exhibition.

Palace admission required. Allow the entrance walk before 10:00.

THE DAY 12:00 - 13:15

Lunch at The Orangery

Reserve an Orangery lunch beneath tall arched windows and globe chandeliers. A picnic in a permitted area is the lighter alternative.

Reserve separately for your visit date; the suggested time is not a table booking.

THE DAY 13:15 - 15:30

Water Terraces & formal gardens

Explore the Water Terraces and formal gardens. Families can substitute the Walled Garden, maze and Butterfly House.

Choose paths for your mobility: gravel and gradients apply. The Italian Garden is viewing-only; Adventure Play needs separate admission.

THE DAY

15:30 - 16:00

East Courtyard & gift shop

Finish with the East Courtyard gift shop, then leave the afternoon-to-dinner gap free for Woodstock.

Allow the exit walk. Woodstock Gate is pedestrian-only and closes at 18:30.

THE PRACTICALITIES

Getting there & home

From Oxford Parkway

S7 links Oxford Parkway with Woodstock/Blenheim. Use dated outward and return timetables; 2027 departures are pending.

S7 timetable ↗

From Oxford city

S3/S7 serve Blenheim from Oxford. City station and Parkway are different starting points; allow the entrance walk.

Blenheim bus options ↗

Driving and the return

Use signed visitor parking. After dinner, take a suitable dated bus or prebook a driver to your actual hotel or campsite.

Palace arrival information ↗

Before you go.

Admission, Orangery lunch and dinner are separate reservations. July 2027 openings and restoration access may change; select the relevant palace or play ticket.

The formal gardens have an accessible entrance. Gravel, slopes and individual garden routes still affect access; use the official visitor map for your chosen circuit.

Make the day yours.
