THE DAY

10:00 - 12:00

A race of your own at Daytona

Race on Daytona's outdoor International Circuit. Start with four-stroke practice if new to karting; sprint and DMAX formats have their own requirements.

Request a morning appointment first. Allow kit and briefing beyond track time. Standard adult formats 14+; DMAX normally 16+ with experience.

THE DAY 13:00 - 14:30

Lunch above the city at Fourteen

A reserved lunch in Fourteen's window-lined restaurant above Hotel La Tour, with city and Campbell Park views.

Arrange lunch after Daytona confirms the kart appointment. Allow the road transfer and restaurant arrival.

Ask Fourteen about a lunch reservation ↗

THE DAY / OPTIONAL 15:00 - 16:30

Optional: take flight at iFLY

Add an instructor-supported indoor flight at Xscape, with the rest of the group watching through the chamber glass.

15:00 example arrival for a 15:45 flight; book an actual offered time. Allow 90 minutes overall and meet every flyer's eligibility rules.

THE PRACTICALITIES

Getting there & home

From Milton Keynes Central

From Milton Keynes Central, use a booked taxi to Daytona and another pickup after racing. The operator estimates about ten minutes from the station.

Daytona address and directions ↗

Between the venues

Book Daytona to Hotel La Tour, then the iFLY connection if selected. Free Daytona parking; separate city parking arrangements apply.

Fourteen arrival information ↗

Back to your actual base

Return after lunch or the complete iFLY appointment. Give the driver your actual hotel or permitted campsite drop-off, not just "Silverstone".

Plan your return and onward connection ↗

Before you go.

Morning karting requires an agreed appointment; weekday racing often runs evenings. July 2027 sessions are unconfirmed.

Kart class, age, height and experience rules apply. iFLY has separate health and equipment-fit restrictions.

Reserve the meal and both road transfers around the offered activity times.

Make the day yours.
